Power Outage Update

Some areas of the City of Peterborough still remain without electric power. According to the Peterborough Utilities Services Inc., there are approximately 3,000 customers that are still without hydro service.

Crews will be working throughout the night to return power to affected property owners but it is anticipated that some areas of the City of Peterborough may remain without hydro until the end of day on Wednesday July 19, 2006 or longer.

If you have reported your outage, please be patient as Peterborough Utilities Services Inc. is attempting to work through the list as soon as possible.
