

City of Peterborough Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 14, 2009
Peterborough, ON --

Benefactors of the Peterborough Public Library will be honoured at a ceremony where Mayor Paul Ayotte will officially open a new donor recognition wall. The event, scheduled for May 26th from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. will take place at the library's main branch at 345 Aylmer Street North.

The display, titled Flying Books, occupies a curved brick wall just inside the front entrance to the library. It incorporates a monitor that serves as a changing bulletin board for library messages. An arrangement of plaques, resembling a flock of books, bears the names of people who have made donations to the public library.

The project was organized and financed by the Peterborough Public Library Foundation and created by Octopus Design and Communications of Cobourg.

Special guests will include donors and their families, representatives of municipal, provincial and federal governments, library board members, present and former members of the Foundation and the Friends of the Peterborough Public Library.

This information is also available on the City of Peterborough website at www.peterborough.ca.

- 30 -

For more information please contact:

Betty-Kay Murray
Head Librarian
Peterborough Public Library
345 Aylmer Street North,
Peterborough, ON K9H 3V7
(705) 745-5382 ext 2370
bmurray@peterborough.ca