PETERBOROUGH PUBLIC LIBRARY CELEBRATES ONTARIO PUBLIC LIBRARY WEEK

Join us on October 20, 2009 at 4:00 pm to celebrate Ontario Public Library Week. As part of the celebration we will be launching Peterborough Public Library's new website and the Children's Internet service.

The event will feature:

- Formal launch of the website and children's Internet service
- Local personalities at the Circulation Desk
- Demonstrations of library materials in new formats
- Button-making craft in the Children's Department
- Announcement of the winner of our Library Website Survey Contest
- Refreshments

Come celebrate with us as we introduce the first module of Peterborough Public Library's third branch – the virtual e-branch.

Ontario Public Library Week recognizes the important contribution public libraries make to education, literacy and life-long learning in Ontario communities. The Peterborough Public Library is one of more than 1,100 service points throughout Ontario. Public library patrons make over 69 million visits to local libraries across Ontario annually, and now virtual visits to the library are common as libraries provide access to electronic information through the Internet.
