Fire Chief for a Day

In the month of October, local primary school children participated in a contest to become Chief for a Day at the Peterborough Fire Services.

Contest winner Kevin Lockie is attending the Peterborough Fire Services today, November 13, 2009, from 9:30 to 12:00 noon as an acting Fire Chief. Kevin will be picked up at Roger Neilson School at 9:30 a.m. in a fire truck driven by Captain Jeff Guest and will be taken to the Sherbrooke Street Fire Hall.

He will go through basic recruit training and work his way up to the position of Chief.

Peterborough Fire Services welcomes Kevin and looks forward to having him join the Division.

This information is also available on our City of Peterborough website at www.peterborough.ca.
