Peterborough, ON --

Citizen Applications to City Boards and Committees

The City of Peterborough is currently accepting citizen applications for appointments to boards and committees. Peterborough residents with a desire to volunteer their skills and time in various activities associated with local government are invited to apply. If you have time and wish to serve, you may obtain an application form at the City Clerk's office, City Hall, or on the City's web site at www.peterborough.ca.

Appointments are available to the Arenas, Parks and Recreation Committee, Arts, Culture and Heritage Advisory Committee, Cenotaph Advisory Committee, Committee of Adjustment, Community Investment Grant Advisory Committee, Museum and Archives Advisory Committee, Peterborough Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee, Peterborough Public Library Board and Peterborough Lakefield Police Services Board. Full appointment details are available at www.peterborough.ca.

Completed application forms will be accepted until Friday, November 19, 2010 at 4:30 p.m. at the City Clerk's Office, 500 George Street, Peterborough, ON, K9H 3R9, or by fax: 705-742-4138, or email at clerk@peterborough.ca.

Interviews will be arranged early in January 2011. Council may receive more applications than there are appointments available; therefore, we take this opportunity to thank you for your interest.

This information is also available on our City of Peterborough website at www.peterborough.ca
