Peterborough Transit Offers Free Service Sunday

Peterborough Transit is offering free transit service all day Sunday, September 25, 2011 as part of International Car Free Day events held around the world this week.

Courtesy of the City of Peterborough, the free service will offer residents access to a sustainable transportation option and promote transit as part of building healthier, more vibrant communities.

Free Transit Sunday is a great way for Peterborough residents to try transit. New buses feature wide doors and no stairs, making them easier than ever to board.
