Peterborough, ON --

OLYMPIC PAIRS CHAMPIONS JAMIE SALÉ AND DAVID PELLETIER JOIN THE CAST OF ROCK THE ICE III

The Peterborough Memorial Centre together with Spotlight Productions and Elvis Stojko are excited to announce that Jamie Salé and David Pelletier have been added to the cast of figure skaters for Rock the Ice III February 15, 2012. The one time show, returning to Peterborough for a third year, is shaping up to be the "best one yet."

Spotlight promoter Daniel Weiss is thrilled about the addition of Salé and Pelletier to the cast. Being able to secure this new talent and combine it with an already exciting line up of skaters will have spectators of the show extremely entertained. "I've always said that Jamie and David are the best pairs skaters since Gordeeva and Grinkov. There is a quality to their skating that just gives you goose bumps - Pure Magic!" said Weiss.

"I am so happy to give Peterborough skating fans the chance to experience these skating legends perform live, right on their doorstep, especially because the last two years have proven what a knowledgeable and appreciative skating audience Peterborough is." said Weiss.

Pelletier is currently in the spotlight on CBC's "Battle of the Blades" featured as the only male professional figure skater, partnering with female Olympic Hockey Player Tessa Bonhomme. On Wednesday, February 15th David will be reunited with his figure skating partner, Jamie Salé at his side.
