

Media release

For immediate release
February 8, 2019

Call for heritage tradespeople

Peterborough, ON – The second annual trade show for heritage tradespeople and contractors will take place in Peterborough on Saturday, April 27, 2019 at St. James United Church, 221 Romaine St. from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Hosted by the Peterborough Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee, in conjunction with the City's Heritage Preservation Office, the goal is to connect contractors and tradespeople with experience working on heritage buildings with owners of heritage properties in the city.

The Committee is looking for tradespeople to participate in the show. Tradespeople with relevant experience are encouraged to fill out the application form available online at www.peterborough.ca or at the Heritage Preservation Office at 210 Wolfe Street. In order to participate, tradespeople must be able to demonstrate that they have experience working with heritage buildings and that their work complies with the Standards and Guidelines for the Conservation of Historic Places in Canada. A space at the event will cost $15.

Please submit completed forms by email to heritage@peterborough.ca or return paper copies to the Heritage Preservation Office. The application deadline is Friday, March 8, 2019.

This information is also on the City of Peterborough website at www.peterborough.ca.

-30-

For further information, members of the media are invited to contact the undersigned:

Emily Turner
Heritage Researcher
City of Peterborough
210 Wolfe Street
Peterborough, ON K9J 2K9
705-742-7777, ext. 1491
Toll-Free: 1-855-738-3755 ext. 1491
eturner@peterborough.ca